790 Attend Sugar Makers Annual Ball

The annual Sugar Maker's Ball, sponsored by the Company at the completion of each campaign, was held in the Opera House last Saturday evening with an attendance estimated at 790 from Stirling, Raymond, Napa, and some visitors from the Picture Butte plant.

After singing "O Canada" a few words of welcome from Superintendent C. R. Wing and an appreciation to the management and the loyal staff of the local factory for a very smooth and successful campaign were given, and then Kay B. Redd acted as Program Chairman.

Johnny Howard favored the crowd with two Hill Billy solos, accompanying himself on the guitar.

Darwin Oler, in "Hillbilly" makeup told a few jokes, a heart-breaking story and wound up with a red hot step dance.

A vocal trio was rendered by Mesdames Laura Watson and Genevieve Hawkins and Miss Beth McBride.

Miss LaVone Peterson gave a lamp, oratory reading.

The two "Old Black Joes" McLean and Strong in black, brought down the house with a few jokes and their touching rendition of "An Sweet M'series of Life" Jack Rich added punch to this act.

The seven o'clock after presented a skit that maybe should have been a "skit" because of the cat that was mixed in it.

Manager T. Wood spoke briefly and thanked all connected with the ball and sugar industry for the successful year just closed, and announced the retirement of Chas. H. Brown, Fred Piegrass and Teddy Davies from active employment after being with the company since it started in Canada, and presented each one with their cheque. Each of the three spoke briefly and expressed their appreciation.

Dancing concluded the evening's entertainment, with music by Nolan and his Canadians and Leonard Watson taking charge.

Mrs. Layne furnished the lunch, which was very good, consisting of a hamburger, pie and ice cream and a glass of punch.

Claude Adamson and wife and Allen Oler and wife are moving to Rossmore just as soon as they can arrange their affairs here. They have leased a service station and garage at that point and are going to move it there. We wish them much success in their move.

New Commissioner

GORDON M. HUITT, of Winnipeg, recently appointed development commissioner of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company with headquarters at Montreal. For the past 13 years Mr. Huitt has been assistant development commissioner of the company.

In a letter to his mother, Howard Hicken announced that he has been made a Flight Lieutenant. Our congratulations to Howard on this promotion. He has finished his local tours and expects to be posted for instructional duty in England.

The weather up to Thursday this week has been difficult. It has been cold and the ground has remained frozen most of the time, but the thermometer has not gone below zero and there has been no snow.

Mrs. Ella Olson, of Rexburg, Idaho a sister of Mrs. E. N. Christensen arrived in Raymond on Wednesday evening for a visit with her sister and family.

Mr. Jean Lagferty, of Raymond, who is stationed at Stirling, Alberta with the C.W.A.C., has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. Our congratulations to Jean on his promotion.

Good Attendance At Next-Of-Kin Social

Between 400 and 500 people gathered at the Opera House Monday evening to attend the program and dance arranged as a welcome home for a number of Raymond young men who have recently returned from overseas service.

Paul H. Redd, president of the organization was chairman of the evening and the following program was carried out: "O Canada" by the congregation, followed by a speech of welcome to all present and especially to the honored guests of the evening, by Mrs. T. Geo. Wood.

Warrent Officer Dick Kinney, who flew as a Fighter Pilot in the Bomber Command expressed his joy at being home after having completed his overseas tour and spoke of some of the experiences he had while away.

Miss Myra Dahl sang "The Prayer" and "I said I'd stay."

Mr. Floyd Winters, of the Salvage Division of the R.C.A.F., spoke and related some of his experiences in England, Sicily, Italy and other war theatres where he has worked.

Alberta Post-War Survey Plan

Thousands of questionnaires to be distributed to Albertans this week for the purpose of determining the needs of the province after the war. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war.

Distribution of the questionnaires was started Monday and Reg. Rese, survey manager of the task set out by the Alberta Post-War Reconstruction Commission, has set a goal of distributing 100,000 questionnaires by the end of the week.

The questionnaires will be distributed to all Albertans, both large and small, will be asked for the most detailed questions. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war.

Not every Albertan citizen or farmer will be canvassed in the survey. But answers given to other questions for the surveying committee has found that the importance of every citizen knowing his own needs and the needs of his community is a fact that will be taken into account by the surveying committee.

Householders will be asked to fill in plans for their post-war needs. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war. The survey seeks to determine the needs of the province after the war.

Each member of the committee and each volunteer worker is doing his part to assure the province's future and the committee is asking each Albertan to do his share.

237 Lions and Partners Attend Ladies Night Speaker

L. W. BROCKINGTON, K. C., is heard on the CBC's Trans-Canada Network on Sundays at 9:15 p.m. In a series of fifteen-minute talks, he is recounting his experiences during a tour of the battlefields of France and Italy. He speaks especially to Canadians who have sons and daughters serving overseas, and to all who have the welfare of the services at heart.

George Brewerton was a business visitor to Calgary this week.

A very interesting program was presented in the First Ward Sunday evening by the group known as the "Gospel of the Gospels" which is in charge of collections, the response to date has been most disappointing.

UNUSED SKATES WANTED

An urgent appeal for unused skates and boots for the use of members of Canada's fighting forces overseas has been issued by military authorities.

An appeal was made some time ago, but according to a report from Y.M.C.A. headquarters which is in charge of collections, the response to date has been most disappointing.

Skates and boots are needed so that the troops overseas may engage in skating and hockey as recreation.

Anyone having skates or boots not in use when they wish to donate for use of the troops should forward them to the nearest Y.M.C.A. office or to the Auxiliary Services Officer, Military District 1, Calgary.

Arrangements have been made to send all donations overseas promptly.

A very well attended and most enjoyable Zone meeting and Ladies Night sponsored by the local Lions Club was held in the Opera House on Wednesday evening when 237 Lions and partners, representing Placher Creek, Warner, Coats, Lethbridge, Magrath and Taber gathered around the tables and partook of the lovely and satisfying supper prepared and served under the direction of the 2nd Ward Primary.

Past President Paul Moreland was Chairman of the evening and after singing "O Canada" prayer was offered by Lion M. T. Kling and then the meal was served, during the eating of which the tall tales of the evening were recounted and they got busy on their collections during all and sundry for many real and imaginary offences.

After the meal, Len Tamar, Ira McBride led the group in community singing and then the following program was carried out:

A number by the Raymond Lions Quartette.

Reading by Miss Madge of Mill River, "The White Chimney of Dover."

Vocal Solo Miss Jeannine Wilde.

Harmonea Duet by Lion Lloyd Sabey and his daughter.

Banjo Solo by a Placher Creek Lion.

District Governor Phil Baker gave a very interesting talk on the aims and objects of Lions and how the attainment of these ideals make better citizens out of everyone living them.

A Saxophone quartette from Taber rendered several numbers and the Lions Roar was given in a very lusty manner for the cooks and waitresses.

Pres. Mutt Ralph of the Raymond Club thanked all for the large attendance and for the fine and successful evening, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, with music by Nolan's Canadians.

DORIS FLEXHAUG PASSES - FUNERAL SATURDAY

Allan Doris Flexhaug, 19 years daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Flexhaug, died Tuesday after being in failing health for about a year.

The family came here 10 years ago from the Manyberries district. Doris was married by her parents to a young brother. The funeral will be held at the L.D.S. first ward chapel on Saturday at 2 p.m. with Christensen Bros. in charge of arrangements.

T. Geo. Wood Reviews Sugar At Rotary

T. Geo. Wood, District Manager about 60 p.c. of the total sugar production of Canadian Sugar Factories, Ltd., best seasons ever experienced and was speaker at the Rotary meeting on Monday and gave a very interesting review of the sugar situation.

He told of the need of rationing sugar, and mentioned its need for war production. Cane sugar production had been greatly reduced because of the war, and much cane had been destroyed due to the ravages of war and enemy action. These things had all contributed to the shortage of this important commodity.

Referring to the recently completed campaign in Southern Alberta he stated that a total of 1,001,265 one hundred pound bags of sugar had been produced which represented a visitor at the meeting.

Women's Institute Hold Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the W.I. was held on January 11th, in church of war work, and will end at the home of Mrs. C. W. Lamb, Pres. Mrs. McMullin presided.

Two subscriptions were received to the Home and Country. Mrs. C. Rolfson asked that members keep their thoughts on Red Cross work, especially prisoners of War.

After church it was decided to hold a garage and jewelry sale in early spring to raise a Red Cross donation.

The program consisted of a talk on blood plasma by Mrs. Norma Mel-drum. This proved a most interesting talk and was greatly enjoyed. Each member then drew for an article to be contributed to duty here in February.

The meeting closed by singing "God Save the King". Lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. E. Winkler.

This was taken over by Mrs. Fanny McBride.

NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kenney and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blaskovits spent the weekend in the Brooks district. They returned Wednesday.

"I told her that each hour with her was like a pearl to me."
"And did that impress her?"
"No. She told me to quit stringing her."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garner and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jones spent part of the week in Pincher Creek where they were learning the secrets of the new and quicker method of curing meats, preparatory to the opening of the curing room in the local Co-op. They returned home Wednesday evening.

A very interesting Preside was held Sunday evening at the E. L. Spackman home when F. O. Grant Spackman gave an interesting talk on some of his experiences while bombing in enemy territory. A vocal solo by Miss Della Paxman and a piano solo by Miss June May added to the program and refreshments were served.

J. D. Hall had his truck busy Tuesday afternoon hauling several loads of clinders in front of the J. I. Case agency which made the approach to this place of business very much better.

Woman (to neighbor)—"It's not till you marry a man that you find him out."

Mrs. Neighbour—"That's right. It was not till I'd married Harry that I found he was out every night."

"What?" cried the irate husband. "You paid $10 for that bunch of flowers and call it a hat? Why, it's a sin, yes, a sin."

"Dearst," coaxed his wife, "let the sun be on my head."

We would like someone to answer this: With wheat at present prices, and oats and barley almost unobtainable, can the government expect people to increase egg production when egg prices are held on the floor all the time? If they want more eggs why don't they boost prices to 42 or 43 cents a dozen so poultrymen can show a profit of a sort on their operations? Why not subsidize them? Who has the answer?

Arthur Nilsson, a brother of Mrs. June Allred and Bert and Erna Nilsson and old-time resident of Raymond is visiting here for a couple of weeks from American Fork, Utah. Arthur says the high steel plants just a mile from American Fork has caused the city to add 1,000 to its population and has made a real boom in all kinds of business.

Constable (to motorist)—Take it easy don't you see that sign.
"Slow Down Here?"

Motorist—Yes, officer, but I thought it was describing the village.

Rustic—Ticket to London for the missus.

Booking Clerk—First or third sir?
Rustic—She's the third, but I ain't never told her about the others.

John Bascom received the following card from the Message Home Committee of the National Jewish Welfare Board, written in New York on January 9, 1945, "My Dear Mr. Bascom: We had the pleasure of entertaining your daughter Ada at our Club recently. She looks well and was in fine spirits. We thought you would enjoy hearing about her."

The parking of trucks on the street in front of the Utah and York Cafes and other business houses, especially when the streets are wet, creates a real hazard, and we think the Town should do something about it. With these trucks on the east side, and on the edge of the roadway, two cars can hardly pass, and the car lights and blacked out trucks make it really dangerous. A few loads of gravel so the trucks could get farther over would help a great deal.

A dry well isn't much help when you're thirsty. And when your business or organization needs money—it's good to have "a well with water."

Smut in Oats and Barley

In our last article, we commented on the alarming and unnecessary increase in bunt (stinking smut) of wheat. In oats and barley, smut disease also causes enormous losses which, for the most part, are avoidable.

In the Prairie Provinces, barley is subject to three different smuts, and oats to two. Formalin and organic mercury dusts may be used to control all except the true loose smut of barley which responds only to the hot water treatment.

Complete elimination of smut by means of seed treatment is often difficult or even impossible. There is evidence that formalin is often more effective than are the mercurial dusts, particularly when smut infestations are severe. But it is important to remember that this advantage may be more than offset by damage to the seed by the use of formalin. "Formalin should not be used on weak seed or when a rapid growth is required to offset wireworm damage, disease, weeds and soil drifting." (Guide to Farm Practice in Saskatchewan, 1942). Also, if the seed is cracked or damaged, the use of formalin should be avoided, and it should never be used for hullless oats.

When mercurial dusts are used, it is very important to secure a uniform distribution of dust, and this depends largely on the efficiency of the treating machine, and of the operator. "If the efficiency of the machines used for this purpose could be increased, it would be a much needed advance." (Proceedings Manitoba Agronomists' Conference, 1944).
